THE 49ER STORY-1946-1964

From a modest beginning in 1946, the San Francisco 49ers have grown into one of the most flourishing franchises in professional sports.

A major league football franchise in the City by the Golden Gate had long been the cherished dream of Anthony J. (Tony) Morabito, a native son and 1931 graduate of the University of Santa Clara. Failing to win recognition from the National League, Tony turned to the All-America Conference, which began operations in 1946 with the late Arch Ward, sports editor of the Chicago Tribune, as the guiding genius.

Although the AAC went under after four years of intense competition with the NFL, it proved Morabito's point that San Francisco was a major league city. Sports fans of the entire Bay Area took the 49ers to their hearts and attendance grew by the proverbial leaps and bounds.

The club's success was predicated on Tony's oft-repeated slogan of "Go first class or not at all," and his early organization was built around such honored names as Lawrence T. (Buck) Shaw, head coach, and Frankie Albert, Norm Standlee, Alyn Beals, Johnny Strzykowski and Len Eshmont—all of whom were already top drawing cards in collegiate and pro football.

The 49ers were the perennial runners-up to the mighty Cleveland Browns throughout the history of the ACC and, masterminded by Shaw on the bench and Albert on the field, became noted nationally for daring, colorful football. The AAC ended its short but exciting life when the Browns defeated the 49ers, 21-7, in the championship game of 1949. San Francisco, Cleveland and Baltimore became members of the NFL.

After 13 years of slam-bang battling in the NFL, the 49ers have yet to win even a divisional championship. They've come close, tying Detroit for seasonal honors in 1957 but dropping the playoff. But in every season except six—1950-55-56-58-62-63—the San Franciscans have been in the thick of the title fight.

Here are the highlights, beginning with the first year in the NFL:

1950—The 49ers fell flat on their faces in their NFL debut, winning only three games. A rival coach described them as "not big enough or tough enough."

1951—In an amazing reversal of form sparked by a great rookie group, the 49ers were in the race to the final day and finished only a half game off the top. Led by Hardy Brown and his famed "shoulder tackle," the club had one of the toughest defensive units in the league. Y. A. Tittle and Billy Wilson began their great careers.

1952—After a blazing start, the 49ers slumped in midseason. It can't be written off as unsuccessful for Hugh (The King) McElhenny came off the University of Washington campus to become "Player of the Year" and the most feared runner in football.

1953—The 49ers had their best NFL showing, 9-3, normally good enough for a championship. But Detroit was 10-2. Two of the San Francisco losses came with Tittle benched because a severe facial injury. The three defeats were by a total of nine points. Joe (Jet) Perry became one of the few players in pro history to gain more than 1,000 yards in a single season. Gordy Soltau was the league's top scorer for the second straight year.

1954—Early momentum was broken by injuries to key players such as Tittle, McElhenny, and Rex Berry. Perry gained more than 1,000 yards again, the first man ever to achieve this distinction.

1955—With McElhenny hobbled by a foot injury, the 49ers had their second worst season in history under Norman P. Strader who succeeded Shaw as head coach.

1956—In Albert's first year at the helm, the 49ers were bogged in last place at midseason with a 1-6 record. They won four and tied one of their last five games for a brilliant stretch drive.

1957—This undoubtedly was the most emotional and dramatic season in 49er history. Every game was a "Cliffhanger" and the "Alley-Oop" pass from Tittle to rookie R. C. Owens became a household byword. Emotions reached a peak when the beloved Tony Morabito collapsed and died of a heart attack at the Chicago Bears game on Oct. 27. Trailing, 17-7, the 49ers fought back for their greatest victory of all time, 21-17. The magnificent Wilson caught a pass from Tittle for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Tied with Detroit at 8-4 when the season ended, the 49ers lost the playoff game, 31-27, although they held a 27-7 lead in the third quarter.

1958—An up-and-down season which finished on a high note when Green Bay and Baltimore were defeated in the last two games. The 6-6 record, however, was blackened by the 33-3 and 56-7 lacerations at the hands of Los Angeles and Albert resigned at the end of the year.

1959—With Hickey in charge, the 49ers were in contention all the way and John Brodie came into his own at quarterback when he led the team to a 21-20 upset of Cleveland. J. D. Smith, converted from a defensive back, became the second 49er to accumulate more than 1,000 yards rushing.

1960—Hickey saved a seemingly hopeless season when he installed his Shotgun attack and the club captured four of the last five games to finish in a tie for second place. Third-string quarterback Bobby Waters threw the passes that upset Baltimore, 30-22, in the final two minutes.

1961—The success of Hickey's Shotgun amazed the football world, especially the 49-0 victory over Detroit. Quarterback Bill Kilmer, a passing-running rookie from U.C.L.A., was made to order for the new offense. When the Shotgun was stopped, Brodie took over again in the 'T' and had the finest season in 49er q.b. annals. Indicating the evenness of NFL competition, the 49ers were playing for a second-place tie, plus a trip to the Runner-up Bowl at Miami, or a fifth-place position on the last day of the season. The Colts again won by three points, but 1961 must remain as one of the most exciting and interesting years in 49er history.

1962—For the first time since 1956, the 49ers finished the frustrating season with more defeats than victories. In so doing, the honored adage of "it's easier to win at home than on the road," proved false—the 49ers won only one of seven at home, but captured five of seven road contests.

1963—Injuries in multitude to key personnel started the 49ers off to a disappointing 2-12 league season. One of the victories, however, was a smashing 20-14 upset of ultimate World Champion Chicago, the only league defeat suffered by the Bears all season.

FORTY NINER COACHES

JACK CHRISTIANSEN

Head Coach

Jack Christiansen was named interim head coach on September 30, 1963, following the resignation of Red Hickey, and in December, at the conclusion of the season, was selected to head the 49er staff in 1964.

Guided the 49ers to one of the great upsets of the '63 season, the 20-14 victory over the Chicago Bears, the only league defeat suffered by the World Champions.

Chris, as he is known by players, associates and fans, has spent his entire career in the National Football League with two teams. Eight playing years (1951-1958) were with the Detroit Lions, and coaching years (1959 through present) with the 49ers.

He was the sixth draft choice of the Lions in 1951 and soon justified the club's selection by becoming an All-Pro his second year in the league. All told, he was named All-Pro in six of his eight seasons and participated in five consecutive Pro Bowl games.

Statistically, as an outstanding defensive back, Chris totaled 46 interceptions for 717 yards and three touchdowns; 85 punt returns for 1,184 yards and eight touchdowns; and 59 kickoff returns for 1,429 yards. He still holds all NFL records for scoring on punt returns.

The Lions had some of their standout teams during Jack's career and the Detroit defensive backfield was known as "Chris Crew." Prior to joining the Lions, Chris was an outstanding gridder and sprinter at Colorado State.

Chris and his wife, Doris, live in Palo Alto with their four daughters—Terri 11, Jacki 9, and twins, Jani and Joni, 8.

BILL JOHNSON

Assistant Coach

San Francisco fans who followed the nine-year playing career of Bill (Tiger) Johnson, always rated him among the top centers in the game. Their confidence was justified when he was named on the All-Time Pro Bowl team by the Helms Athletic Foundation.

Bill was captain of the Tyler, Texas, Junior College team that won the national title, plus the Little Rose Bowl classic in 1947. These honors followed almost three years in the Pacific with the Navy.

Signed by the 49ers primarily as a linebacker in 1948, he played very little as a rookie because of a broken wrist. But he took over the following season at offensive center and provided much of the blocking that made the 49ers noted as pro football's strongest running club in the early 1950's.

Bill and his wife, Dot, reside in Palo Alto, Calif., with their three children—Bill, Jr., 15, Sherilyn, 14, and Tommy, 7.

DICK VORIS

Assistant Coach

Also beginning his first campaign with the 49ers is Dick Voris, who joined Hickey's staff this spring after two years as Director of Player Personnel and Assistant Coach with the Green Bay Packers.

Voris, a graduate of San Jose State, was an outstanding center and linebacker at Santa Cruz High, Hartnell Junior College and San Jose.

His coaching career started on the high school level. He returned to Hartnell as head coach for two seasons (1952 and '53), his teams going undefeated in 21 games. He was line coach of the Los Angeles Rams in 1954 and in 1955 joined Earl Blaik's staff at West Point as line coach and chief assistant. He was a third year member of the Army staff when he resigned to become head coach at Virginia. He left Virginia in 1961 to join the Packers.

Dick and his wife, Idelle, live in Mountain View with their three children—Richard, Jr., 16, Susan, 14, and Ronald, 13.

BILLY WILSON

Assistant Coach

Billy Wilson rejoined the staff this spring as offensive end coach and the return was immediately hailed by 49er fans.

In slightly more than nine years of National Football League history, Billy engraved his name deeply into gridiron records. His nine full seasons, plus four games in 1960, show a total of 407 pass receptions, one of the great marks of its kind in the NFL.

Drafted by the 49ers in 1950 as a 21st "redshirt" choice, he joined the club in 1951 and immediately gained a place among the NFL's leading receivers. He tied for the pass receiving crown in 1955 with 53, then led in 1956 with 60 and again in 1957 with 57.

Billy, who has Sac and Fox Indian blood, was born on a reservation near Sayre, Okla. He grew up in Campbell, Calif., and served three years in the Navy before enrolling at San Jose State where he was an All-Coast performer in both football and basketball.

A perennial All-Pro choice, his biggest thrill was being named the Most Valuable Player in the Pro Bowl in 1955. Billy and his wife, Shirley, live in Campbell with their four children—William Wynn, 10; Greg, 7; Holly, 5; and Tracy Marie, 1.

JIM DAVID

Assistant Coach

Jim David, a teammate of Jack Christiansen on the famed Detroit Lions clubs of the mid '50s, was selected by Chris this past winter as the 49ers' new defensive backfield coach.

Jim came to the 49ers from the Los Angeles Rams where he first served as defensive backfield coach under Bob Waterfield and then as a college talent scout last season.

A member of the great "Chris' Crew," Detroit's defensive backfield that featured Yale Lary and Bob Smith (and Karl Karilivacz for two years) in addition to Chris, David was six times selected for the West's Pro Bowl squad, and played on four Western Division championship Lion teams, three of which won the World Title.

Jim, 36, also was a Colorado State teammate of Chris.

During his eight seasons with the Lions (1952-59), David intercepted 36 passes and was an all-out, tenacious competitor.

LYNN O. WALDORF

Director of Personnel

A former president of the American Football Coaches Association and one of the most respected men in sports, Lynn (Pappy) Waldorf joined the 49er organization in 1957. Since then, he has built up a talent-scouting force second to none. His efforts have been responsible for many new faces on the San Francisco roster in the past four years and the 1964 crop of newcomers is rated among the finest in the club's history.

A tackle at Syracuse University in the early 1920's, he coached at Oklahoma City, Oklahoma State, Kansas State and Northwestern before taking over what he termed the "Sleeping Giant" at the University of California in 1947. Under his tutelage, the Golden Bears won three consecutive Pacific Coast Conference titles—1948-49-50—and represented the West in the annual Rose Bowl classic at Pasadena. His 10-year record at California was 66 wins, 32 losses and four ties.

One of the nation's top after-dinner speakers, Pappy is especially noted for his limitless supply of limericks. He and his wife, Louise, live in Berkeley. They have two daughters and five grandchildren.

LINCOLN KIMURA

Trainer

Starting his second year as head trainer for the 49ers is Lincoln "Linc" Kimura. Kimura started as a student assistant trainer at San Jose State in 1946 while an undergraduate. He earned his AB degree at San Jose in 1949 and became that school's first full time trainer, a job he held until his full time 49er appointment. Linc, who also holds a masters degree in education from Stanford, is one of the most highly regarded trainers in the nation. He is a charter member and a former president of the Pacific Coast Trainers Association. He resides in San Jose.

Fast, strong, good hands are the principal recommendations from scouts that led to his being 49ers' first draft choice . . . named All-America and All-Southwest Conference in 1963 . . . caught 32 passes for 499 yards and three touchdowns . . . one of his own personal highlights was playing in East-West Shrine game . . . also played in All-America Bowl and in Chicago All-Star classic.

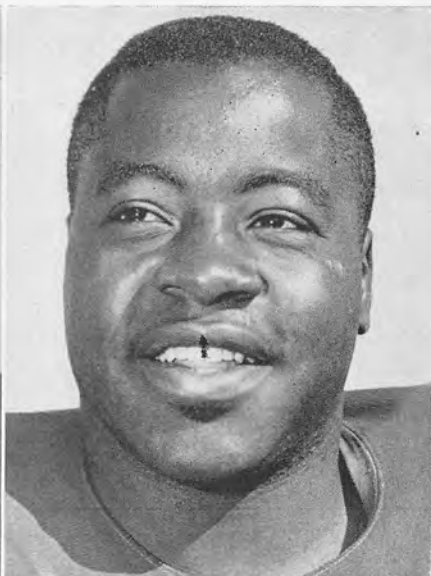

BOB POOLE

Drafted	Pos.	Born	Ht.	Wt.	School	Residence
8	E	10/5/41	6-4	216	Clemson	Florence, Ala.

Had hard luck in college with injuries, but has fine hands, size and speed to be excellent tight end or even split end or flanker . . . rated an outstanding blocker . . . industrial management major in college.

BOB WATERS

JOHN THOMAS

DAVID WILCOX

Drafted	Pos.	Born	Ht.	Wt.	School	Residence
3	LB	9/29/42	6-3	230	Oregon	Vale, Oregon

Strong and versatile . . . played end junior year at Oregon, but guard in senior season . . . performed notably in Sun Bowl and All-America Bowl . . . 49ers see him as excellent outside linebacking prospect . . . brother John played with Philadelphia Eagles in 1960.

Robert J. "Buzz" McGee was the first publicist the 49ers had when the club was organized for the 1946 season. Buzz was responsible for much of the colorful material concerning the 49ers that appeared throughout the nation's press during the 49ers' four years in the All-America Conference. Buzz left the 49ers prior to the club's debut in the National Football League. Buzz, always jovial and smiling, passed away last fall.
